

Blue Ridge Portraits

Dillon Farley, Olivia Godfrey

Thank you for considering our services to document your special day! Weddings only happen once, so it's important to capture the moments you'll cherish.

We offer several packages based on your needs. We believe in documenting your day in the way that best fits your interests, whether that's keepsake prints, digital files, or mounted portraits to hang in your home. Our photographs are not watermarked, and they are edited and stored in maximum resolution.
